Volume 21 Issue No. 4

FR. KENT
KAUFMAN
Pastor

Dear Friends in Christ,

I will be dating myself by saying this, but some of my earliest childhood memories are watching Romper Room with my friends and family. My best friend Mark and I liked the show so much we even crafted our own “romper stompers.” We used some thin rope and a few old metal coffee cans. Do you remember metal coffee cans? This way we could imitate the children on television with our own actions at home. Yes, this show kept me occupied for at least thirty minutes a day and undoubtedly gave my mother a refreshing break!

A key character on Romper Room was Mr. Do Bee who was ready to teach us children how to make wise decisions that led to wise actions. The oversized bumblebee character was rather difficult to overlook in a room filled with pint-sized people. We all wanted to be “Do Bees” who knew how to negotiate well through the challenges and temptations of life.

In a sense, Mr. Do Bee was only continuing what Jesus and the saints taught long ago. They taught us to be “Doers of the word” and not just “Hearers of the word.” Saint James reminds us that to be only a hearer of the word is like looking in a mirror and then forgetting what you look like. No, we are called to be doers of the word who act after we have reflected on the word. (James 1:22-25)

This inspiration and encouragement to be Doers is perfect for us as we start the Season of Lent. Traditionally we think of Lent as incorporating ways we can pray, fast, and give alms. This year, however, Bishop Thomas and the diocese have offered us a creative twist built on the word DO.

This year, let’s DO Prayer, DO Service, and DO Gratitude. No doubt, if you are a disciple you already are doing these three things. Perhaps then, you can ask yourself if you have maxed out in your doing. Perhaps this Lent is the time you take it to the next level. Like a game or sport or exercise, you have mastered the basic level. Now you are ready for the advanced level.

Even better, maybe this Lent you can become Mr. Do Bee for someone who has not yet even heard the word, let alone decided to be a doer of the word. It might be your own children, or your neighbors, or your friends. You can even be like St. Francis and refrain from using any words. Let your actions (when you are a doer of the word) be the encouragement for them to also become doers of the word.

I have encouraged our Pastoral Ministry Team here at St. Charles to become creative this Lent as we embrace what it means to do prayer, do service and do gratitude. Whether in ways large or small, each little act of doing becomes a gift, an offering, and perhaps even a sacrifice for God and the People of God.

Recently I sat down with a widow of a few years just to reflect and get to know each other. We ended up thinking about ways we could reach out to others who are going through the loss of a spouse. In the end, we decided to offer an opportunity this Lent for wiDOws to not only do the three “Do’s” but to add a fourth that I know will be popular - DO LUNCH! Even better, we selected the DO GOOD restaurant in Osgood as our destination.

Due to the size of the restaurant we will have to limit our group to the first 16 participants who register. Our date is Thursday, March 24. We will gather at 10:00 a.m. and return by 2:30 pm. Our day together will incorporate special ways to Do Prayer, Do Service, and Do Gratitude even while we also Do Lunch.

So, I invite you this Lent to get out of bed, get off the couch, get away from the computer, or get out of the house and become a doer of the word. Let the word you hear each Sunday, and the nourishment of the Eucharist you receive be the fuel. Let those graces power the engine of your life as a disciple who not only hears the word, but acts on it!

Sincerely in Christ,

Fr. Kent

Christian Corner Community Center

MAUREEN KASKEL
Director of Christian Corner
Community Center

Greetings from the Christian Corner Community Center on McClain Road in South Lima! Despite the chill of winter, on Monday, Wednesday and Friday, we served an average of 30 meals per day in January. This includes both dine-in and carry out. Our pantry was greatly enhanced by the green onion bag food drive as coordinated by the Stolly Family for Give-A-Christmas. Christian Corner was one of the community recipients for the donated items. Visitors to the Center were also afforded the opportunity to take food home this winter, thanks to this program and your generous donations.

Our 'regular' cook had a stroke on January 9, and has recently been discharged home for continuation of rehab and speech therapy. Fortunately, Margo, a lady with group cooking experience was available to help out during the interim.

DATESAVER: Saturday, June 18, 2022 will be our first 'Fun-raiser' for Christian Corner Community Center in quite a while! Our theme is "Appreciation of Life" and the format will be a good ole' block party, based here on the grounds of the Center at 1601 McClain Road. There will be BBQ chicken and ribs dinners with all the trimmings available for purchase and activities for both adults and the little folks. Please do put this date on your calendars for a fun day of food, games, speakers and community time. This event is planned around the new National Holiday of Juneteenth, technically the 19th of June, which falls on the 3rd Sunday of the month this year, (Father's Day). Bring Dad on out for a real treat!

Thanks to all who adopted an individual or family for the Christmas gift program. Between St. Charles and St. Michael's in Kalida, approximately 500+ gifts were donated and processed for distribution through the Center. We are grateful to share that everyone who signed up did, in fact, receive a gift(s).

The St. Charles Maintenance Committee has given a lot of time to studying the structural issues of our "classic, historical" building, the former Greenlawn Roller Rink. We send them a huge salute of appreciation! Gene has been on site for several meetings and of course, we can always count on Denny. Thanks, Guys!

One of our 'regulars' at the CCCC was kind enough to bring his snowblower over on a Thursday to clear off the entire parking lot after the recent storms. Bob was quite a trooper to "take a pain pill beforehand" and then spend 3 ½ hours on the project. God Bless you, Bob! Or, as Bip says so often, "appreciate you."

What a Joy to Serve

By Emily Decanio

What a joy it is to serve! The St. Charles 7th grade class (pictured here with teachers Mrs. Lauck and Mrs. Blubaugh) experienced this joy first-hand as they chose to do a service project to help those in need from our community. The students collected personal hygiene items for the families we serve through Family Promise. They brought these donations to church during a school mass, and now we will be able to distribute them to the homeless families who stay at St. Charles. Thank you so much to these caring kids who put their faith into action to serve those in need!

Our next hosting date is April 17-22. If you and/or your family would like to participate in serving a meal or staying overnight, please contact the parish office.

ZACH EVERETT

Director of Discipleship
& Evangelization

Lent every year is an opportunity for each of us to grow in our relationship with Christ and prepare our hearts for Easter. As a convert, Easter Sunday is always a reminder of entering the Catholic Church and experiencing the Sacraments for the first time. Everything was new, exciting, and filled with meaning. As the years pass by, it might be tempting for us to look at Easter as just another holiday, when it is truly the most important celebration of our faith. In these few short days we see the great love that Christ has for each of us and that He was willing to die for all of our sins and that He came back from the dead and is challenging each of us to follow Him.

The real question then becomes, how do we peel back the layers this Lent and experience it as fresh, new and exciting. Every Lent we are challenged to prepare our hearts for Easter by spending more time in Prayer, by Fasting, and through Almsgiving.

PRAYER

If you are looking for ways to Pray More this Lent, pick up one of the RESTORE books that will be available in the Church before Lent begins. This is a guided meditation by Sr. Miriam James that will pierce your heart and help you to love more than you thought you could. You could also start listening and studying Scripture with Fr. Mike Scmitz "Bible in a Year" Podcast. Or if you just want to keep it simple, I would challenge you to take time to read one of the Gospels from beginning to end.

JEREMY HOLLIS

Director of Youth Discipleship and Evangelization

Life is made up of a whole bunch of different journeys and every year we enter into a 40-day journey that we call Lent. It begins with the ashes we receive on Ash Wednesday and ends with the Easter Triduum. It is a journey that gives us the opportunity to be transformed, an opportunity to stop paying attention to what the secular culture wants us to be and look to God to see what He wants us to be.

The ashes we receive on Ash Wednesday remind us that we are human and we cannot escape death. During the course of our lives we all have two hard and set in stone dates, our birth and our death. Have you ever looked between those dates though? There's a dash between them and it's the most important part of those two dates. That dash is our life. It's what we do with that dash that really matters.

Our current culture is trying to tell us who we should be. It tells us that we can "look forever young", if we use the right beauty products or do the right workouts; maybe we can "get rich quick" if we invest in the current

Prayer, Fasting, and Almsgiving

FASTING

Fasting and Abstinence are a great way to train your body to recognize that we are not meant for this world, but for the next. It's also a great way to help root particular sins out of your life. So maybe this year you could do more than just no meat on Fridays and giving up candy. Maybe change what you are listening to or what you are watching to be good for your soul as opposed to harmful. Perhaps only listen to Christian Music or only watch things that are educational or spiritually enriching. You could watch "The Chosen" or stream content from Formed.org. The most important component to fasting is that if you give something up and then find yourself falling back into old habits is to not just slide all the way down the hill. Recognize that you have fallen short and pick up your cross and begin again.

ALMSGIVING

Almsgiving is more than just giving money; it's also the attitude of our hearts towards God and our neighbor. Maybe this lent you give up any unnecessary spending. Maybe give Amazon Prime a break for a bit. Maybe you can make it a point to call someone you care about that you have not spoken to for a while. You could reach out to neighbors and collect old coats to take to one of the shelters or make a meal for one of your elderly neighbors.

Every Lent we have an opportunity to grow in relationship with Christ; don't let this opportunity pass you by again this year. If you haven't done much to improve your relationship with God in a while, choose one thing and stick with it all through Lent. When we get to Easter, look back to see how you have grown and perhaps how you can encounter Christ this Easter with an entirely new lens.

What Do You Seek

meme stock that's "going to the moon"; maybe its power, and being in control; or maybe we just want a life of painless ease.

Sure, we can make our lives look like we are the happiest people in the world on social media, but the reality is that our culture is offering us empty promises when it comes to being happy. Blaise Pascal said, "All men seek happiness. This is without exception. Whatever means they employ, they all tend to this end..." While these "empty promises" might bring us to a temporary "happiness" that fades away and leaves us feeling empty and then moving onto the next thing that we try and fill that God sized hole with. Temporary happiness is one thing, but what would you give to be happy forever?

Everyone knows where I'm going with this right?

Jesus' first words in the Gospel of John are, "What do you seek?" Those are the words that I am going to focus on this Lent and the words that I am going to ask all of our youth to ask themselves also, as we make the journey through Lent this year. Just look for the book "The Search" by Chris Stefanick and Paul McCusker in the church, or ask me for one. There is also a video series by the same name on Formed.org. It is free to make an account. "What do you seek?"

Opportunities Abound

Throughout the season of Lent we find ourselves making conscious efforts of reaction to our work toward reflection. Easter marks a celebration of restarting anew with the strength and vigor of baby steps that have accumulated into trustworthy strides toward becoming more deeply committed to the faith and values we hold dear. We walk on with hope and purpose.

I find that I reflect and redefine my paths fairly frequently throughout the year. There are many kinds of seasons to spark the process of change. And as they overlap in different spheres like a Venn diagram, I seem to be seeking one complete goal throughout my personal and professional life. Much of that can easily be summed up with the campaign: Do Prayer. Do Service. Do Gratitude. In prayer, I seek the path I am meant for at the time. In service, I seek to share whatever I can. In gratitude, I am amazed by the significant abundance of even the smallest seeming events.

I will spare you my personal music process, but only say that it is constantly full of revision. I do believe I would not enjoy it as much as I do without the creative novelty of constant questioning and change.

Thinking of our music at St. Charles Borromeo Catholic Church, one of the ways that our ensembles can experience growth is through the addition of new ensemble members. Ensembles require blending and balancing. They reach deeper meaning over time with the development of teamwork. Every part is important, there are leaders and supporters in each area—both are necessary. Given a baseline of our usual, we can work for more development. Given the familiarity we earn through our time spent together, we can achieve trust and faith in our greater goals. Every new member who joins an ensemble becomes an enriching ingredient to the whole.

Currently, we are down in numbers for all ensembles. This is not a surprise, despite doing our best to mitigate safely through the pandemic. But as we start to round out to our new normal, I would once again like to open the doors to all who may be interested in sharing the joy of music. We are especially in need of soprano and alto singers in choir, but all are most welcome. Practices are held at 7:30 p.m. on Wednesdays throughout the school year. We are also looking for more bell players. A basic level of musicianship is preferred, but not required. Practices are at 7:30 p.m. on Tuesdays throughout the school year. Children's choir is also open for those who wish to join. Our small but mighty group practices on Tuesdays at 6:30 p.m. throughout the school year. Please reach out to me if you have any questions, or simply show up at one of the practices. I am excited to see how the ensembles will renew this year!

Beyond music ensembles, our vibrant worship commission organizes many events throughout the year. If you have an interest in being a part of making these events happen, please reach out to me at aebkers@stcharles-

lima.org and I will provide you with more information. Here are some of the events that we provide for our parish and community:

World Day for Grandparents and Elderly: This is a picnic, games and raffle event in July. Cooks, BBQ-ers, decorators, set up and tear down, game runners, announcers, all are needed.

Syro-malankara: Fr. Thomas and his brother priests and perhaps bishop share their worship rite with special music and musicians from Chicago in April. Ushers and greeters are greatly appreciated. Also, we host a brunch and reception afterward. Set up and tear down appreciated.

Ministry Appreciation Day: we have a brunch and sometimes a speaker to say thank you for our many volunteers. This is held in March, April, or May. We set up, decorate, serve and tear down.

Concert series: we offer four concerts during the school year that are free and open to the public. It is important that we host our neighbors with graciousness. Ushers and door greeters are greatly appreciated for this.

Christian Unity Ecumenical Event: we reach out to several Christian churches to have an hour of prayer and liturgy of the word together. Greeters and bakers for the light reception are appreciated! This event is in January.

This is what the worship commission has so far. As you can see, we like to keep busy! Perhaps some of these activities will interest you.

But above all, take the time to pray, do service and be grateful. I am excited to see how we all can make strides forward in whatever we are called to do.

2021 - 2022 Concert Series

The fourth and final concert of the Open Hearts Classical Music 2021-22 Concert Series season will feature Maestro Hector Olivera on Sunday, March 27th at 2:00 p.m. A prodigy who began playing organ at the age of three, was appointed organist at the the Church of Immaculate Conception at age five, entered the Buenos Aires Conservatory at age six, composed his first symphonic work at age nine, and so forth, Buenos Aires born Hector Olivera's "amazing effect on audiences has made many of the most sophisticated and demanding organ aficionados claim that Maestro Hector Olivera is 'one of the greatest organists in the world today.'"

Truly a great master of our time, Mr. Olivera has entertained in notable venues internationally with great acclaim. Whether playing for an audience of 5000 at the Notre Dame Cathedral in Paris, soloing with the Cleveland Orchestra, recitaling at the prestigious Walt Disney Concert Hall in Los Angeles, concertizing across Australia, playing in Spivey Hall for the Atlanta Olympic Games, performing a memorial concert in New York City's 'St. Paul the Apostle' and much more, he is always approachable, engaging and entertaining. This is a lifetime concert experience not to be missed.

In addition, the maestro has graciously offered to share his passion and expertise in a Master Class which will be held on Saturday, March 26th at 10:00 a.m. While the concert is free and open to the public, the Master Class will be $10.00 per person.

Do not miss this opportunity to hear the amazing symphony of sounds that Hector Olivera can achieve from the organ. You will be amazed!

If you need a smile or energy . . . . .

Most days I find myself buried in my office with mountains of receipts and invoices. It feels like the tunnel gets farther and farther some days, but hey that's what comes with the job. Besides cracking water cooler jokes with the best office ladies in the world, my day is pretty straight face and to the point, stoic in nature. That stoic face can only last about thirty seconds the moment I walk into two of our church's facilities. I take two steps into the school and get hit with a rush of energy that an extra-large cup of coffee can't even produce. The energy of the children drips from the walls in the school. I know I can't be the only one who feels that special one of a kind energy. Then you walk through the school and notice everybody is moving with that electricity. Truly a beautiful spectacle. I get that same energy from the 4C (Christian Corner Community Center). The 4C is a Community Outreach, and I emphasize COMMUNITY. I don't know many people that can give more of themselves to those who don't have much, and not feel better after.

My good people of St. Charles Parish, we are stepping into a season of Sacrifice and Servitude. We have more than one facility that can fulfill this Lenten season purpose. We are always in need of volunteers at the school, church, and the 4C. Take a step in our hallways, feel that energy, let it charge you up, and pass that energy on to another so they can walk with that same confidence.

Peek into the Past Spring 2012

"Egg-cellent" Learning in Kindergarten

The students had fun learning about the many kinds of animals that hatch from eggs! We learned that "Chickens Aren't the Only Ones!" The students were required to illustrate an animal inside an egg and write clues for their classmates to guess! This writing project was a lot of fun because we were able to "hatch" the animals by reading the clues to our classmates. The challenge was to write each clue in the form of a question. We later conducted experiments with real hard boiled eggs – the students had to weigh, diagram, and determine its buoyancy. I have a group of "eggs-cellent" learners!

Iva and Natalie want to find out how much their eggs weigh!

Brodie discovers that his egg sinks!

Now, more than ever, the world needs what Catholic schools have to offer. Catholic education is special. We hold our students to not only high academic standards but to strong moral standards as well. We reinforce the positive, compassionate energy our society needs.

Here, every student is valued. Learning is celebrated. Faith is strengthened. And for all of us teachers providing that education is far more than a job. It's a higher calling. After all, Catholic schools are founded in faith, helping students realize the full potential of their God given abilities. We teach our students Christ's message of service to others above self. ## 7th /8th Honor Society Banquet 2022

By Charris Miracle

Friday, January 28th, a banquet was held for students who were inducted into the St. Charles National Honor Society. This organization recognizes students who reflect outstanding accomplishments in the areas of scholarship, leadership, citizenship, service, and character. Students secure their place on the St. Charles National Junior Honor Society by earning an overall GPA of 3.67 during their 6th and 7th grade school years.

Mrs. Scheid praised the students for their diligence in their studies, while they balance other extracurricular activities, in which they are involved. She also challenged the students to make good choices now to impact their future. The students received a certificate in recognition of their achievement. We congratulate the following students on their outstanding academic accomplishments:

The St. Charles Chess Club

By Muriel Collins

The St. Charles Chess Club had another successful season. Our players showed compassion, resilience and competitiveness to each other during our time together!

Our championship game took place between Sam Conrad and Rylen Heitmeyer. Sam reigned victorious and we finished our time together with laughter and a pizza.

Our chess club t-shirts were sponsored by two angels among us. They have touched our hearts and we are truly thankful for their generosity!

From the Art Room

By Becky MacDonald

Jude and Ryley, in the First grade, are painting snow on their winter house scene.

Third grade girls, Allie and Gretchen, show off their Winter Cardinal Project. Students learned about John James Audubon, a self-taught artist who drew and painted all the birds of North America.

Courtney and Isabella, 8th grade art students, are drawing their pop art item. Students are learning about the Pop Art Movement of the 1950's and 60's, which focused on everyday items from popular culture.

5th Grade News From Mrs. Henderson's Room

What a great time we are having this winter! We just held a contest over patriotism. The students wrote 250 words or less on what that word meant to them.

Here are just a few things each winner said.

Corie said, ...“The root word to the word patriotism is patriot, and a patriot is a person who loves, supports, and works for their country. The United States of America was founded by brave patriots who fought for their freedom and ours.....So in summary, the word patriotism to me means being proud of your country, and most importantly, helping others.”

Sam said, ...“One big act of patriotism is joining our military. ... Helping your community is all an act of patriotism.”

Luke said,... “Patriotism is being a patriot. To be a patriot you must give yourself to America!”

So proud of them all!!!!

Winners were: 1st place - Corie Schnieders, 2nd place - Sam Williams, 3rd place - Luke Weitz.

A Few Frequently Asked Questions about Lent and Easter

What does the word Lent mean?

It is from the Anglo-Saxon word lengthen, which means spring. [From Modern Catholic Dictionary by John Hardon, SJ]

Where did the law about not eating meat on Fridays originate? When was this changed to Ash Wednesday and the Fridays of Lent?

Already in the fourth century, there was a Church law about abstinence (not eating meat on certain days). Wednesdays, Fridays and Saturdays were once days of abstinence in the Western Church. By the 12th century, this was required only on Ash Wednesday and on Fridays—to remind Christians that Jesus died on this day. (Later, abstinence was added in connection with a few feasts.)

The U.S. bishops decided in 1966 to require fasting and abstinence only on Ash Wednesday, the Fridays of Lent and on Good Friday. Earlier that year, Pope Paul VI allowed conferences of bishops to select days of fast and abstinence.

Are chicken and fish considered meat?

Chicken yes, fish no. The Catholic Church's abstinence laws consider that meat comes only from animals such as chickens, cattle or pigs—all of which live on land. Birds are also considered meat. Fish are a different category of animal.

What feasts are celebrated during Lent?

Though Lenten liturgies take precedence on most weekdays, the Church celebrates the feasts of Saint Patrick on March 17 and Saint Joseph on March 19.

What determines the date Easter Sunday falls on or when Lent begins?

The Council of Nicaea, in 325 A.D., determined that Easter should be celebrated the first Sunday after the first full moon of spring. To determine the beginning of Lent, count back six Sundays before Easter. The Wednesday before the first of these Sundays is Ash Wednesday.

If the date when we celebrate the birth of Jesus was selected rather arbitrarily, why couldn't we select a permanent date for Easter? It would simplify things for many people!

The current "first Sunday after the first full moon of the spring equinox" system causes Easter to bounce around like a yo-yo. Who wrote this date in stone? Can it be changed?

Yes, Easter could have a permanent date. The Roman Catholic Church has indicated its openness to this if a common agreement can be reached among all Christians. Because such an agreement already exists among Catholics and Protestant denominations, any change will involve discussions with the Orthodox Churches. A bit of background may help here. In the earliest years of Christianity, Easter was celebrated on Passover (14th day of the month of Nisan, based on a lunar calendar). Eventually, most Christians came from a gentile background and began to look for a date based on the solar calendar. The dating system that Western Christians now use was confirmed at the Council of Nicaea in 325 A.D.

In the appendix to Vatican II's Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy, we read: "The Sacred Council is not opposed to assigning the feast of Easter to a fixed Sunday in the Gregorian Calendar, provided those whom it may concern give their assent, especially the brethren who are not in communion with the Apostolic See."

Ecumenical dialogues have not yet led to any official decision to change the present system. The council went on to say in that same appendix that the Catholic Church does not oppose a permanent calendar in civil society, as long as it uses a seven-day week and does not introduce any days outside the week.

Lenten Prayer for Spiritual Renewal

God, heavenly Father, look upon me and hear my prayer
during this holy Season of Lent.
By the good works You inspire, help me to discipline my body
and to be renewed in spirit.
Without You I can do nothing.
By Your Spirit help me to know what is right and to be eager in doing Your will.
Teach me to find new life through penance.
Keep me from sin, and help me live
by Your commandment of love.
God of love, bring me back to You.
Send Your Spirit to make me strong in faith and active in good works.
May my acts of penance bring me Your forgiveness,
open my heart to Your love,
and prepare me for the coming feast of the Resurrection of Jesus.
Lord, during this Lenten Season, nourish me with Your Word of life and make me one with You in love and prayer.
Fill my heart with Your love and keep me faithful to the Gospel of Christ.
Give me the grace to rise above my human weakness.
Give me new life by Your Sacraments, especially the Mass.
Father, our source of life,
I reach out with joy to grasp Your hand;
let me walk more readily in Your ways.
Guide me in Your gentle mercy, for left to myself I cannot do Your Will.
Father of love, source of all blessings, help me to pass from my old life of sin
to the new life of grace.
Prepare me for the glory of Your Kingdom.
I ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son,
Who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, forever.

Amen.
